1. Read verses 1-4.

- c. What is the consequence of their actions?

2. Read verses 5-7.

Chapter 4 – What the future holds

5. Verses 1-5 describe the coming thousand-year kingdom age of Jesus' reign on earth. What do you learn about this time from these verses?

6. What promises to Israel do you find in verses 6-8? (keeping in mind this is the millennial kingdom being described, the Hebrew term 'forever' doesn't always mean 'without end' but rather a length of time determined by the context.)

7. Micah changes his focus to a coming judgment against Judah. Read verses 9, 10 along with 2 Chronicles 36:15-23.

8. Micah switches gears again in verses 11-13. Read these verses along with Joel 3:9-15.

a. What event is being described?

9. Was there a verse or a passage from chapter 3 or 4 that made an impression on you?

“Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.” 2 Peter 3:13
