“God’s Wrath: It is Done”

Revelation 15:1–16:21

Getting to know each other:

- 1) If you could be a witness to any single event in world history, what would it be and why?

- 2) What is one thing you hope to see, experience or accomplish in your lifetime?

Getting into the Word:

- 3) In this section of Revelation, we see that everything God does is true, righteous, and just. Even in the midst of the Great Tribulation, God desires for sinners to repent and turn to Christ. Yes, hardened people will be punished, but multitudes will get saved. In Hab 3:2, the prophet prays to the Lord, “in wrath remember mercy.” Many people wrongly picture God’s righteous indignation as being mean, angry and unwarranted. How does the Bible portray God’s attitude when He judges? See: Joel 2:30–32; Rom 10:12 & 13; Ezek 18:30–32; Ezek 33:11; 2Peter 3:3–9; Rev 16:5–7.

- 4) We heard it said, “God wants us to be good stewards over planet earth.” After all, when God finished creating this world in six days, Gen 1:31 says, “Then God saw everything that He had made and indeed it was very good.” But today, this world is suffering from the cancer of sin and the wickedness of carnality, which leads to death and destruction. As Christians, what do you think our top priorities should be concerning this world? What is God’s ultimate solution concerning planet earth according to the Bible?
