"Paul: the Seed Sower"
Acts 17:16-34

Current Life Group Session:
January 12, 2025 – March 2, 2025

Getting to know each other:

- 1) The Apostle Paul acknowledged that the people of Athens were very religious. We could say the people of the U.S.A. are very religious. How is "being religious" different from "being saved"?

- 2) As Christians, we all go through various seasons of life. Sometimes life seems easy. Sometimes life is difficult. The Holy Spirit often uses the Word of God to speak to us throughout our lives. Can you list some of the verses that God has used to minister to your heart and mind during the best and worst of times?

Getting into the Word:

- 3) Athens, Greece, was the center of philosophy in the ancient world. The word means, "love of wisdom." Simply put, it is the quest for knowledge. Sounds good, right? But if the One, True, God of the Bible is not acknowledged, then the best humans can offer is empty and vain philosophies that are deceitful. What do these (and other) Scriptures say about the philosophies and wisdom of human beings in comparison to the wisdom of God?

Prov.9:10...1Cor.1:18-25...1Cor.2:1-16...Col.2:6-10...Col.2:16-3:4...2Tim.3:15-17...James 1:5.

- 4) How do these Scriptures affect your walk with Jesus on a daily basis?

"The gods of the Greeks were distant beings who had no concern for people's problems and needs. But the God of creation is not a distant deity. God made us in His image, so making gods in our own image would be foolish."
